11. An act, "appointing Commission-to ascertain the most proper place holding Courts for the county of Rus-12. An act, "to authorize the Clerks of counties of this Commonwealth, in ca-where there is no county surveyor, to of entries of lands, and grant copies of records from the surveyor's books of their pective counties."
13. An act, "concerning Jacob Kern." 14. An act, "authorizing the remo-of a house on Wide Water Street in Borough of Norfolk, and for other pur-15. An act, "altering the times of hold-certain quarterly Courts in the counties Lee and Russell." 16. An act, "authorizing a sale of the of Bristol parish, and for other pur-17. An act, "altering the time of holda quarterly Court in the county of Kingham."
18. An act, "concerning Thos. B. Bar-19. An act, "regulating the fees, and eng the pay, of prosecutors for the Com-wealth in the Superior Courts of Law." By this act the Judges of the superior Courts of Law are respectively empowered allow to the attorneys for the Commonwealth, prosecuting in their courts, such compensation for their services as they shall deem reasonable; not exceeding, in any case, the sum of one hundred dollars annum for the court of one county; the allowance so made to be certified by the court, and paid out of the public treasury.—Whenever judgment shall be rendered for the Commonwealth in any superior court of law, upon a prosecution for a misdemeanor, the penalty whereof is not ascertained by law to be less than $30 dollars, there shall be taxed, in the bill of costs, a fee for the Commonwealth's attorney of 10 dollars, instead of the fee heretofore taxed. And when judgment shall be rendered for the Commonwealth in such court, in any other case, wherein it had been heretofore used to tax an attorney's fee, there shall be taxed hereafter a fee of five dollars:—provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to extend to those cases in which a higher fee is now allowed by law than those hereby directed to be taxed. No attorney for the Commonwealth in any superior court of law shall be at liberty to resign his appointment without the leave of the court, unless he shall have given to the Judge of the court in which he shall be attorney, at least thirty days notice of his intention to resign.—[Takes effect from the 1st of April, 1816.]

Berkeley further time to pay into the public treasury, the revenue of said county."
41. An act, "concerning Abraham Dap-venport." 42. An act, "to alter the time of holding the quarterly and monthly courts of Chesterfield county, and for other purposes."
43. An act, to repeal in part an act, entitled, "an act to prevent the destruction of sheep," passed January 26th, 1814.— [The sections repealed are the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th, of that act containing the tax on dogs, and regulations concerning it.] 44. An act, "to explain and amend an act to amend the act, entitled, "an act to reduce into one the several acts concerning mills, mill dams, and other obstructions of water courses," provides that all millers or occupiers of mills, which have heretofore ground, or may hereafter grind, for toll, whether established by law or otherwise, shall in future be subject to all the provisions of the 2d section of the act, to amend the act concerning mills, &c. (Revised Code, 2d vol. p. 126.) provided that every miller, or occupier of a mill, who shall fail or neglect to comply with the requirements of the aforesaid act shall forfeit and pay to the party injured five dollars for each offence, instead of the penalty heretofore prescribed.—[Takes effect from the 13th of January, 1816.] 45. An act, "concerning the sheriff of the county of Hampshire." 46. An act, "altering the time of holding the monthly and quarterly courts for the counties of Mason and Cabell."

ers." 51. An act, "concerning the Great coastwise Canal and River Navigation Company."
52. An act, "to repeal an act, entitled, "an act to establish an Academy in the county of Pittsylvania." 53. An act, "to amend an act, entitled "an act concerning the emancipation of Slaves"—provides, that any Slave who, since the 1st of May 1806, has been emancipated for extraordinary merit, and any Slave who may be hereafter emancipated for extraordinary merit, shall be at liberty to apply to the Court of any county or corporation within this Commonwealth, for permission to reside within such county or corporation. And the Court, to which such application shall be made, a majority of the acting magistrates being present, or having been summoned for that purpose, shall have power, upon satisfactory proof made to them of such extraordinary merit of the applicant, and of his or her general good character or conduct, to grant to him or her permission to remain within this Commonwealth, and to reside within such county or corporation; provided, however, that no such permission shall be granted, unless notice of the application shall have been posted at the front door of the Court house of the county or corporation, for at least five weeks preceding such application. Every application so made shall be duly entered of record; and, if the permission be granted, there shall, at the same time, be entered of record, as the authority thereof, the general good character of the applicant, and the extraordinary merit for which he or she may have been emancipated; otherwise, any permission granted by the Court shall be merely void.—A permission so granted and recorded shall authorize the person, in whose favor it is, to reside, as a free person, within the limits of the county or corporation, the Court of which shall have granted it, and shall be a full protection to such person travelling in any part of the Commonwealth; but it shall not authorize him or her to reside within any other county or corporation.—When permission shall have been so granted to any emancipated Slave to reside as a free person within any county or corporation, it shall be lawful for the same court to extend the like permission to his or her emancipated wife or husband, or children:— provided, that a like notice of the application be posted at the Court house door, and that satisfactory evidence be adduced of the general good character and conduct of such wife, husband or children.—When any application for leave of residence within this Commonwealth made by any emancipated slave, shall be rejected, the rejection thereof shall be recorded, and shall be final; inasmuch that no appeal shall be taken thereupon, and that any such permission granted by any court thereafter shall be null and void. If any emancipated slave, having obtained leave of residence as aforesaid, shall afterwards be convicted, by the verdict of a jury and the judgment of a court, of any offence against the laws of this Commonwealth, it shall be lawful for any county or corporation court, having granted such leave, a majority of the acting magistrates being present, or having been summoned therefor, and such emancipated slave having been duly summoned to show cause against it, to revoke the leave of residence granted as aforesaid, if to them it shall seem expedient.—If, after such revocation, such emancipated slave shall remain within this Commonwealth more than twelve months, he or she shall forfeit his or her right of freedom, and may be apprehended and sold in the manner prescribed by the 10th sec. of the act to amend the several laws concerning Slaves, passed the 25th January, 1806. And if any descendant, however remote, of any such female slave, as may have obtained leave of residence as aforesaid, shall at any time be convicted of any offence against the laws of this Commonwealth, it shall be lawful for the court of that county or corporation within which the conviction may be had, or such descendant may reside, to revoke in like manner, the leave of residence of such descendant, and to order him or her to depart this Commonwealth; whereupon, if he or she shall remain therein more than twelve months, he or she shall forfeit his or her right of freedom, and may be in like manner apprehended and sold.

[Takes effect from Jan. 24th, 1816.] 54. An act, "to amend the act, entitled, "an act "incorporating a Company to establish a Turnpike road, commencing at any point on the route laid down for the Lebanon turnpike road, extending towards the Falls bridge, as far as the boundary of the District of Columbia." 55. An act, "concerning James Durrell." 56. "An act, "establishing a separate election on the Eastern side of Cheat river, in the county of Monongalia." 57. An act, "authorizing the divorce of Hezekiah Mosby from his wife Betsey."

VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.
HOUSE OF DELEGATES.
Tuesday, February 20.
The House was informed by the Senate that they had rejected the bills, entitled "An Act authorizing a sale of a tract of land belonging to the heir of Joseph Reid, deceased," "Authorizing a sale of the real estate of John and Nancy McCreery, Infants," "Relieving sheriffs failing to account for militia fines in certain cases;" and "Adding to the name of Josiah Cowper the surname of Parker."—The Senate also stated that they had passed certain laws—the titles or contents of which shall soon appear in the Sketches of the laws we have now commenced.
An engrossed bill "To provide an accurate Chart for each county, and a general Map of the territory of this Commonwealth," was read a 3d time and rejected.
—Noes 72, Ayes 63.
The engrossed bill "More effectually to prevent the circulation of notes emitted by unchartered banks," was taken up, and, on the motion of Mr. Tucker, certain sections were added by way of rider —these go to prohibit the signing, endorsing, issuing or receiving in payment, by a person, association or body corporate, of any note, bill, check or ticket, for a less sum than one dollar, under the penalty of being guilty of a misdemeanor, and of subjecting themselves to a fine.
The principal struggle was as to the commencing clause—one side of the House was for an earlier day—the other, wished to fill the blank with the 15th of November. The principal argument for the last was, that, however small the consideration which the house was disposed to give to the unchartered banks themselves, yet time ought to be allowed to their debtors to pay up their debts and to wind up their transactions with the banks—that it would be impossible for them to do so until their next wheat crop could be bro't to market. The bill was finally filled with the 15th of November, ayes 76, noes 74.—The bill passed then with the rider, ayes 103, noes 33.
[REMARKS.] The bill was reported to the H. of Delegates by the committee appointed to enquire what legislative relief ought to be given to the people of this Commonwealth, until the Banks shall return to specie payments.
The 1st Sect. of the bill provides, "that all judgments of debt due on execution, deed of trust, judgment, distress, decree or Mortgage, no sale shall be made" unless the plaintiff for his agent, "shall a month before such sale, endorse upon said execution," &c. that he is willing to receive in payment and discharge thereof, any notes or bills of chartered banks, of this or the adjoining States or of the District of Columbia, as are usually current and circulated in that county or section of country where such sale or distress may be intended" to be made —Provided, that no one avails himself of this Act, unless, before such sale takes place, he tenders to the Committee appointed to enquire what legislative relief ought to be given to the people of this Commonwealth, a sum of money equal to the amount of the debt, payable with legal interest thereon, on or before the 25th day of December next—and with this further provision:
"That no debtor shall avail himself of the provisions of this act, unless he shall have paid or tendered to the plaintiff the costs, fees and charges adjudged against him by the Court rendering such decree or judgment, in the paper of the banks aforesaid." The bill was ordered to be engrossed—and printed.
Two bills have just passed the Legislature, of some interest to thirty; one which authorizes the opening of the river from Rockets to Mayo's bridge; the other, which permits Mr. T. Wilson and others to build a bridge over the river at West-ham.
NOTICE.
[A bill has passed both houses of the Legislature, incorporating a company to improve the Navigation of James River, from Rockett's up to Col.
Mayo's bridge, for the admission of vessels, and for the purpose of paying with legal interest thereon, on or before the 25th day of December next—and with this
further provision:
"That no debtor shall avail himself of the provisions of this act, unless he shall have paid or ten-
The bill was ordered to be engrossed—and
printed.
By this list it appears, that there are 49 incorporated and lawful Banks in this Commonwealth, and 20 individuals issue notes in Pennsylvania.

CONGRESS.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Monday, Feb. 19.
Mr. Taylor of N. Y. from the committee of elections, made a detailed report on the petition of Robert Porter Field, contest-ing the election of William McCoy, a member of this House, from the state of Virginia; concluding with a resolution to confirm the sitting member in the right to his seat. The report was referred to a committee of the whole house.
Mr. Huger made an ineffectual motion to take up a resolution submitted by him some days ago, respecting an enquiry into the manner of keeping public accounts, &c.
Mr. Pleasant, from the committee on naval affairs, reported a bill for the relief of those citizens who were wounded in the prison of Dartmoor, in England.
Mr. Forsyth, from the managers appointed to confer with the managers on the part of the Senate, on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses, respecting the bill for carrying into effect the convention of commerce with G. Britain, made a detailed report on that subject, embracing the views advanced by either party, the points of compromise attempted; and the agreement of the conferees thereon. The report was laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.
The Speaker likewise laid before the House a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of a resolution of this House of the 4th inst. respecting the duties paid on the tonnage of British vessels entering the ports of the United States with cargoes, from the British West-Indies; which was read and ordered to lie on the table.
On motion of Mr. Webster, Resolved, That a committee be appointed to enquire into the state of the incorporated Banks within the District of Columbia, so far as it is consistent with the privileges of their respective charters; and also to enquire into the number of unincorporated Banks within said district, and the rules and principles of their association, and to ascertain as near as may be the amount of bills by them issued, their ability to redeem the same, and to make report by bill or otherwise.
The House then went into committee of the whole, Mr. Condit in the chair, on the orders of the day.—The bill to relieve certain Canadian volunteers in the late war, being under consideration.
Mr. Johnson of Ky. moved to amend the bill, so as to include in its provisions those refugees only who had been citizens of the United States previously to the late war; which motion was carried without a division.
Mr. Robertson then moved a new section to the bill, embracing for relief or remuneration all our own citizens, whether on the maritime or territorial frontier, who suffered losses by the enemy during the late war.
Mr. Hopkinson moved to amend the amendment, by incorporating the cases of those citizens who sustained loss by the British in the revolutionary war.
Both the preceding motions, after a short discussion between the respective movers, were successively rejected—after which, Mr. Barbour proposed, by way of a amendment, an entire substitute to the bill, the object of which was to allow to the volunteers in question, a bounty in land in proportion to the rank they held in our service, instead of graduating the bounty by the amount of their losses in Canada.
A debate ensued on this proposition, which, by branching a good deal into the merits of the case, and the deserts of the refugees, occupied nearly the remainder of the day. The advocates of the amendment were, Messrs. Barbour, Hubert, Tucker, and Cady; and its opponents Messrs. Johnson, Alexander, Yates and Clay.
The question was finally taken on the proposed amendment and carried.—Ayes 77, Noes 49.
Mr. Forsyth moved to amend the bill by expunging the discrimination, and extending its benefits to all the inhabitants of Canada, who came over and took up arms for the U. States.
This motion was opposed by Mr. Grosvenor and supported by Mr. Forsyth, and disagreed to.
Ayes 40—Noes 79.
The committee then proceeded to fill up the blanks in the bill, [to apportion the bounty] after which the committee rose, reported the bill to the House, and the House adjourned.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.
The Senate yesterday passed, by unanimous consent, the resolution from the H. of Representatives, respecting the remains of Gen. Washington. [Ad. Int.]

The Dutch Governors, &c. of Surinam and the other Islands retroceded to the King of the Netherlands by the treaty of 1814, between Great Britain and Holland, have arrived at their stations—The colonies Demerara, Essequibo and Berbice see to remain in possession of the British; but the inhabitants are to be allowed, until the year 1821, to use American or any other foreign vessels, with the cargoes, in their navigation; provided the bottoms are Dutch property. After 1821, their commerce must be carried on in British or English built and navigated vessels.

Capt. Mackey, 25 days from St. Helena for England, and was treated politely—the boarding officer, Lieut. Gunning, informed us that Napoleon Bonaparte was in good health, but at variance with his friends and the rest of his suite, with whom he had no friendly intercourse, but preferred the company of the British officers.—Ad. C. H. Books.
